

Covid-19: The new rules for Wales

The latest rules and restrictions for Wales were announced by Mark Drakeford on Monday 30th November 2020

From Friday December 4th 2020 all cafes, pubs, bars and restaurants will have to close their doors at 6pm

Cafes, pubs, bars and restaurants will have to stop selling alcohol entirely

Indoor entertainment venues, such as cinemas, bingo halls, bowling alleys, soft play centres, casinos, skating rinks and amusement arcades, must close.

Indoor visitor attractions, like museums, galleries and heritage sites will also have to close.

Outdoor visitor attractions will be allowed to remain open

The restrictions will be reviewed on December 17 and then every three weeks
