

Lockdown in Wales

When might restrictions be lifted?

From the 27th March:

- Stay local restrictions could be lifted
- Self-contained holiday accommodation could reopen
- Libraries could reopen
- Organised children's activities could restart

From the 12th April:

- All shops could reopen
- Remaining close-contact services could restart
- All remaining schoolchildren to return to the classroom
- Driving lessons could resume

From the 22nd April:

- Gyms considered for reopening
- Outdoor hospitality considered for reopening
- Car driving tests could restart
- More news on wedding receptions could be announced

Information is from the Welsh Government and is subject to change depending on case numbers