

Focus Futures is here to help you build up the skills and confidence to get a job or think about becoming self-employed.

Our Focus Futures team will work with you, face-to-face and online, and support you as you build your confidence, get better connected and change your path for the future.

How we can help you:

- 1-2-1 and group sessions with people who can talk to you about employment
- Access to webinars and events that will give you new skills
- Support to develop your ideas and plans
- Opportunities for you to network & connect with people like you
- Learn new skills that will help you in the workplace

Get motivated, inspired and ready to make a change!
